Marine Cutback Considered by the Navy

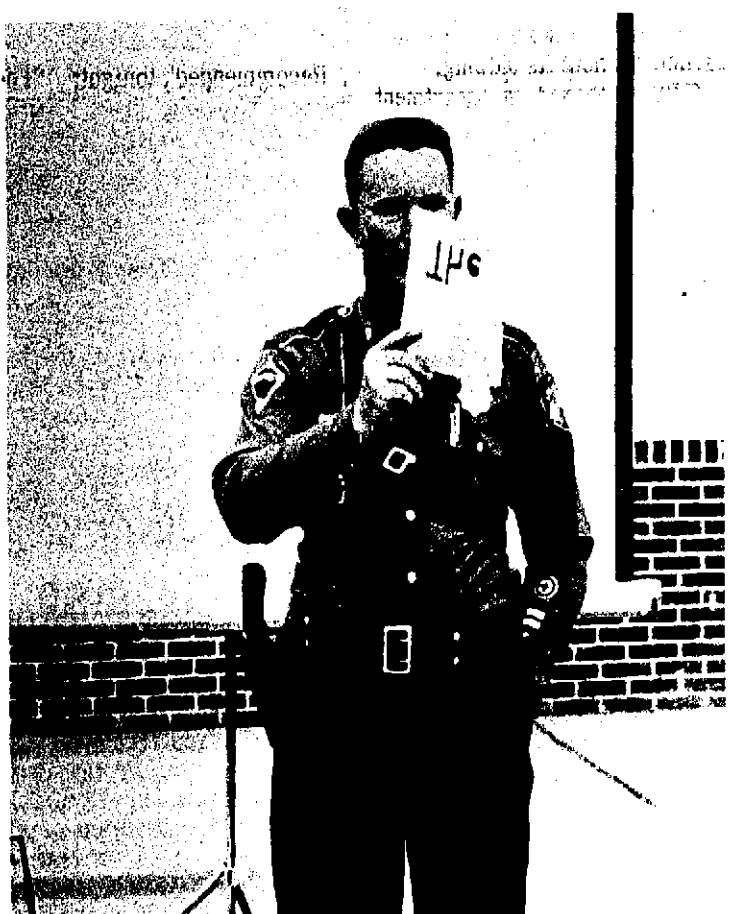

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy is considering deactivating a Marine division, one-third of which is in Vietnam, as a way of further cutting defense spending this year, Pentagon sources report.

Involved is the West Coast-based 5th Marine Division, whose 6,000 to 7,000 men 26th Regiment is operating around Da Nang, South Vietnam.

The outfit's other two regiments are at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Military officers said in advance of today's scheduled White House announcement on troop withdrawals they did not know whether the 26th Regiment might be called home for deactivation as part of the cutbacks.

But they said the deactivation of the 5th, if ordered, would almost certainly require substantial Marine cuts in Vietnam

Sgt. Dean Friend, Vehicle Inspection Division of the Arkansas State Police, told those attending the final session of the Youth Automotive Program, what must be done to an auto to pass the safety inspection.

Gunfire Erupts in Cairo, Ill. After 2 Quit

CAIRO, Ill. (AP) — Gunfire erupted in this racially torn Southern Illinois community today less than 12 hours after the city's mayor and police chief resigned in the wake of growing tensions. Police said there were no injuries.

Police said they did not return fire which came from the neighborhood around Pyramid Courts, a Negro housing development.

State police reported a burst of machine-gun fire first broke the early morning silence, followed in succession by small-arms fire and up to 16 rounds of tracer bullets fired into the air.

State police patrolled the neighborhood of the housing project but did not enter. The gunfire stopped 20 minutes after it began.

A new mayor and police chief took over a few hours earlier, and there was no indication the changes would lessen racial unrest and disorders which have plagued Cairo.

This was the final of four meetings sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service in cooperation with other organizations and individuals.

Monday after three months as police chief, declaring: "When the people of the entire community, white and black, state they are going to arm themselves and take the law into their own hands, then I as a professional policeman cannot continue to head this police department."

He was joined in resigning by Mayor Lee Stenzel, who last week ordered a state of emergency and a ban on public assembly following skirmishes between whites and blacks over a Negro boycott of Cairo merchants.

Estimates of the Negro population in this community of 8,500 residents range from 40 to 50 per cent.

Catholic Barricade Dismantled

By COLIN FROST
Associated Press Writer
BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — The British army today began dismantling Roman Catholic barricades in the riot-torn Falls Road district of Belfast.

In some instances, the army said, the local population was helping troops take down the barricades, but a crowd of women and children sat in front of their barricade in Gilford Street singing civil rights songs and refusing to let the army take down the obstruction.

The army said it had moved three battalions of soldiers into the district to "provide massive protection" for the Catholic inhabitants.

Li. Gen. Sir Ian Freeland, commander of the 7,500 British troops in Northern Ireland, said the dismantling operation began after talks with provincial government officials and in accordance with procedures worked out during talks last week with Belfast's civil rights leaders.

The agreement provided for British officers to reach separate agreements with the residents of each barricaded neighborhood on the protection the residents feel they need following removal of the barricades.

Belfast's Catholic minority threw up makeshift barricades during last month's Catholic-Protestant warfare, and the Protestants replied with barricades of their own. British troops have put up a "peace line" barricade between the two communities, and the Protestants removed their barricades voluntarily. The Catholics kept more than 150 barricades.

A Catholic citizens' committee had indicated earlier today that the city's Catholics were ready to remove the barricades, but it later withdrew the statement and called a meeting tonight to vote on the matter.

Jim Sullivan, chairman of the Central Citizens' Defense Committee, said: "The barricades stay until we've made a democratic decision."

He was replying to Bishop William Philbin, the Roman Catholic bishop of Down and Connor, who toured the makeshift barricades and told the men behind them that the obstructions "must come" down now. We will not be bullied into keeping them by a small minority."

Freeland met Monday with British Prime Minister Harold Wilson and Home Secretary James Callaghan. He returned from London today with orders to take down the barricades despite Catholic opposition.

Callaghan said after the meeting: "The barricades must come down, and progress must be made in the matter very quickly." He ruled out negotiations between the army and citizens' committees and said Freeland would arrange the timing and manner of the removal with the Ulster government of Prime Minister James Chichester-Clark.

Congress Applauds the Moon Team, a Landing on Mars Next in Line

By ROBERT K. WALKER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress called a joint session to applaud the U.S. moon team today as the Nixon administration moved ahead with new proposals to put an American on Mars, possibly within two decades.

Apollo 11 astronauts Neil A. Armstrong, Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Michael Collins were invited to address the lawmakers at Noon EDT.

The belated congressional honor comes 57 days after Armstrong and Aldrin set foot on the moon. President Nixon paid tribute to the astronauts with a state dinner more than a month ago in Los Angeles, and there were huge parades for them in New York and Chicago.

Congress, on vacation from Aug. 13 until Sept. 3, had planned a joint session for the astronauts last week but postponed it because of the death of

Brooks Claims Willie's Walk Against Him

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Rev. Cato Brooks said Monday that Lance "Sweet Willie Wine" Watson's "walk against fear" last month was a march against himself and the Rev. J. F. Cooley.

Brooks and Cooley are co-chairmen of the Committee for Peaceful Co-existence, an organization that led a Negro boycott of white merchants in Forrest City.

Brooks invited Watson, leader of a Memphis black militant group known as the Invaders, to Forrest City to help organize the boycott.

In an open letter, Brooks was critical of Watson and a "freedom" rally scheduled by Watson in Forrest City Sunday, but which Watson did not attend. Several speakers at the rally were critical of Brooks and Cooley.

"I used to wonder how Jesus felt when he was being tried for his life because he would not be a crowd pleaser, now I know," Brooks said.

Brooks asked: Why did Watson "arrange" to be arrested in Little Rock, then return to Memphis Sunday without appearing at the rally? Watson was arrested on a warrant issued in Forrest City for being a "disorderly person" the night of Aug. 26, when he was roughed up by a group of whites.

Watson said Sunday that he would organize a "mule train march" across Arkansas. Brooks and other representatives of his committee had announced Saturday that they were postponing indefinitely their plans for a "poor people's march" across Eastern Arkansas.

Brooks said he would organize a march and boycott of white businesses at the Columbia County community of McNeil Saturday in protest of the firing of the Rev. W. C. Timms, a Negro and former principal of McNeil schools, and of the distribution of students in the town's schools.

No Provision for Rioters in Loan Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The student loan bill—without provision for dealing with campus rioters—is on its way to the Senate after passing 322 to 60 in the House.

In the Senate, the measure—which attempts to make loans to needy students readily available through government-guaranteed interest subsidies—either can be passed in its present form or sent to a conference committee. The House defeated an attempt to write in anti-riot provisions.

Another version, passed earlier by the Senate, was rejected by the House just before Congress took its three-week summer recess.

This left many students who planned to resume college this fall with the help of a loan holding the bag. President Nixon, however, appealed to banks to grant the student loans anyhow, on the strength of the bill's passage when Congress returned.

Under either measure, private banks would grant loans to students and the government would pay the interest until the student completed his schooling. The government also guarantees repayment if the student's family has an income of less than $15,000.

While the legal interest ceiling on such loans would remain at 7 per cent, the measure provides for interest subsidies of up to 3 per cent to the banks.

Vietnamese attack in the region in the past three days. Last Saturday about 200 North Vietnamese troops attacked a platoon of U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese militiamen in a village 13 miles northwest of Quang Ngai. This triggered an eight-hour fight in which two American Marines and eight Vietnamese civilians were killed, three Marines were wounded and 260 houses destroyed.

Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky told newsmen Monday that 40,500 more Americans would be pulled out of Vietnam by the end of November. That would reduce U.S. troop strength to 467,500.

A few hours later the White House confirmed that a withdrawal announcement would be made today by President Nixon but withheld the number. And the U.S. Armed Forces Network censored all references to Ky's remarks from its news broadcasts. A spokesman for the U.S. Command said Ky's statement was considered "speculative" and the military radio-television network "only uses confirmed stories."

Another American official said Ky's remarks were blacked out "because we were expecting an announcement from President Nixon."

Among the troops expected to go are the 3rd Marine Division, now stationed along the demilitarized zone, and units of the 1st Infantry Division, the first Army division to arrive in Vietnam.

Daughter Says Stalin Sane During Purges

NEW YORK (AP) — Svetlana Alliluyeva says her father Joseph Stalin "knew exactly what he was doing" when he carried out the bloody purges which shook the Soviet Union before World War II.

"My father was not mad, at least not in the 1930s," Mrs. Alliluyeva said in an interview Monday. "He was just ruthless. He knew that the party was filled with opposition to him, that people would move against him if they could. He simply destroyed all of the opposition with complete ruthlessness."

She said the purges Stalin ordered after World War II "had a different quality."

"Certainly in his last years he was a sick man," she said. "Was he mad? I don't know."

How does she view Soviet leaders other than Stalin?

She said former Premier Nikita Khrushchev "was a good man. Very ignorant. He tried so hard but in the end they pushed him out."

Commenting on Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, she said, "When you see that face you know he just can't succeed."

She described Leonid I. Brezhnev, general secretary of the Communist party, as "just a rude party bureaucrat. A nothing."

Mrs. Alliluyeva, 43, also held a news conference here Monday introducing her second book "Only One Year."

She told reporters she now is at home in America and would like to be a student again "but not a teacher." She would like to become an American citizen but "it would do no good to apply now," she said.

"I once was a member of the Communist party and that would be against me," she explained. "Perhaps some day when everyone understands that I am not a Communist it will be possible."

Lone Sailor Tells About Experiences

SAN SALVADOR, Bahamas (AP) — Bill Verity says one of the big annoyances on a solo small sailboat crossing of the Atlantic is the tendency of sharks to dine on your laundry.

Verity also notes that a steady diet of dolphin, while nourishing, is likely to slim down the human body—in his case, from 195 to 165 pounds.

Reminiscing on his 114-day voyage from Ireland in a 20-foot craft, the 43-year-old former boat builder of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., remarked:

"I was off the coast of Spain the first time I lost a pair of trousers. It happened every time I towed my clothes to wash them. Sharks stole them all the time."

Verity finished his crossing at the end of an oil tanker's tow line Saturday. He made the trip to demonstrate that an Irish monk named Brendan the Bold could have discovered America in the sixth century after spanning the sea in a cockleshell, as legend says he did.

At one point his rudder fell apart as he cruised off Puerto Rico, but a U.S. Coast Guard cutter supplied lumber and tools to replace it.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

NO LAW AGAINST IT, SO "STEP IT UP!"

Dear Helen: I have been going with Cindy for three years and we want to get married when I am out of the Service.

But last week my mother and her father got married! They met through us but we didn't think it was serious. Not that we don't all like each other. We get along fine. But what do you say to these jokers who kid me about marrying my own sister?—NO RELATION

Dear No: Tell 'em you're taking a "step" in the right direction—to the altar.—H.

Dear Helen: I missed my graduation because of a terrible mistake. I was pregnant, but the boy ran away when he heard. Later I lost the baby. I'll never forgive myself or forget.

I swore I would never fall in love again, and I didn't date for three years. Then I met this wonderful, 34-year-old man at work. There are two problems. He is 14 years older than me, and has a wife and three children. He says he is very unhappy and hopes to get a divorce. We see each other whenever we can, and we're talking marriage.

Do you think I'd be taking on too much?—ONCE BURNED

Dear Once Burned: Remember the end of that adage: "Twice cautious!" I think you may be EXPECTING too much!—H.

Dear Helen: Please, would you tell us again how to get foreign pen pals?—E.F.

Dear E.: Send 35 cents, your name, address, sex, age, and country-preference to WORLD PEN PALS, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn., 55455. Good Luck!—H.

Dear Helen: What use is it to have good and thoughtful opinions on politics, prejudice, etc. if only your friends listen to them, but grown-ups laugh at it? My parents think the reason I liked Bobby Kennedy was because he was "cute."

When I finally broke through the kidding and told my Dad all about the things Mr. Kennedy stood for, he backed off a little, but not much.

The adult attitude is "What do YOU know—you're only 14?" Well, I know a lot more than the generalizations they put out. Even if I can't vote, I study the candidates and don't just take what somebody rumors about them.

My history teacher says that every man has prejudice in him. I guess he's right, but I think I lost a lot of mine in the fourth grade. A new girl in school had a funny southern accent and "looked different," so I immediately didn't like her. The next day some kids were throwing rocks and she got hit, almost losing her eye. When she came back to school, the kids all tried extra hard to make it up to her—and I found out she was one of the nicest girls I'd ever met—because I made an effort to know her. Every time I jump to conclusions now, I think about this girl.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "My World—And Welcome to It" moved into NBC's schedule Monday night and deserves credit for an attempt to break the familiar mold of situation comedy.

The half hour is fantasy of a kind new to television—a combination of animation and live action about the Walter Mitty dreams of a mousy man whose frustrations result in cartoons like those of the late James Thurber.

William Windom plays with sensitivity a dreamy, myopic middle-aged fellow dominated by a sweet and formidably understanding wife and a 10-year-old daughter with the patience of a septuagenarian.

When the program concentrated on the husband's attitude toward his wife, on the wife's handling of her husband and on the daughter's management of both, it was witty, urbane comedy. It got into trouble, however, with a sharp shift of style and mood in visualizing the hero's flights of fancy. Then the comedy became broad, resorted to commonplace gambits and used a loud laugh track to destroy the delicate fabric it had woven.

The episode opened with cartoonist John Monroe bemoaning his domination by women. It was shown by cartoon, by live action and was building nicely until John began explaining how Gen. U.S. Grant won the Civil War. At this point, comedy took a slapstick tack and never returned to the original form.

"My World—And Welcome to It" is a good try and about as far from "The Good Guys" as situation comedy can get.

It was followed by the season premiere of "Laugh-In," back with the same hectic pileup of jokes, wise-cracks, in-quips and guest stars. Something new seems to have been added, a slight suggestion of self-importance that detracts somewhat from the madcap atmosphere of yesteryear.

The season's first award of the Flying Pickle Finger of Fate went, without jokes, to the Pentagon and Congress, and Judy Carne didn't shout, "Sock it to me!" even once. The fast, furious format seems to have returned without its oldizing.

CBS gathered an assortment of old football film clips and strung together a commentary about professional football's 50th anniversary. The result

Carlton Was Ailing But Fanned 18

By MIKE BRYSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Steve Carlton left lousy. He was running a slight temperature, his back hurt and he arrived at the St. Louis ball park only about an hour before Monday night's game with the New York Mets.

The big left-hander had his sore back rubbed down, took a couple of pain killers—and went out and struck out 19 batters, the most strikeouts recorded by a pitcher in modern major league history.

Only there was on little problem.

"The Amazing Mets Super Swat got me," said Carlton, referring to Ron Swoboda, whose two homers produced all of New York's runs in a 4-3 victory that spoiled Carlton's masterpiece.

Swoboda, fanned twice by Carlton, boosted the Mets from behind with each of his shots—and both came when Carlton had two strikes on him.

The triumph increased to 4½ games the Mets' National League East lead over Chicago, which lost 8-2 at Montreal, and reduced to 11 New York's magic number for clinching the divisional title.

Meanwhile, Willie Mays hit the 599th homer of his career in leading San Francisco past West Division leader Atlanta 4-1, drawing that torrid race even tighter.

The Giants trail the Braves by only one-half game and .003 percentage points. Cincinnati broke Los Angeles' four-game winning streak 4-1 to move ahead of the Dodgers into third place, just one game and .005 points back of the Braves. The Dodgers are 1½ games and .009 points back of the leader.

In other games, San Diego handed Houston its fifth straight defeat, 5-3, keeping the fifth-place Astros 5½ games back of Atlanta, while Philadelphia swept a doubleheader from Pittsburgh, 2-1 and 4-3.

In the American League, Washington edged Baltimore 3-2, Cleveland stopped Boston 4-1, California blanked Chicago 4-0, Minnesota defeated Oakland 6-3 and Seattle edged out Kansas City 3-2.

Carlton, who struck out 16 in a losing effort to Philadelphia two years ago, said he wasn't aware of how many strikeouts he had until it was flashed in the scoreboard after he tied his old team record of 16 in the eighth inning. "In the last inning, I went out there to strike out three men."

"I was so nervous I would rather have had the guy get a hit that foul out or ground out just so I could get the record."

The 24-year-old lefty received a standing ovation when he completed his string by setting down the Mets in order in the final inning.

Bob Feller of the Cleveland Indians set the old record of 18 strikeouts on Oct. 2, 1938 and Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers matched it twice, while Don Wilson had 18 for Houston last year.

Carlton fanned the side in the first, second fourth and ninth innings and retired 12 of the first 15 Mets on whiffs.

Swoboda stalked the Mets to a brief 2-1 lead in the fourth when he homered on an 0-2 count with Donn Clendenon aboard.

Then Swoboda, who has hit six of his nine homers while the Mets have taken 27 of their last 34 games, produced the winner on a 2-2 count with Tommie Agre on in the eighth.

Carlton said Ron's first homer was on a fast ball "right in his wheelhouse," and on the second he "hung a slider."

"I felt so good until that (second homer)," said Carlton. "I threw four fast balls and really had him set up for the slider. I figured he'd be as tense as I was, thinking about me hanging it."

"You can't call it a mistake because it could have been a foul ball or a double play ball," said Swoboda about the pitch that set up his clincher. "He threw worst pitches that I didn't hit."

But Swoboda added, "I don't want this to sound like a mutual admiration society, but I've never seen anyone pitch better."

DeQueen Is Real Tough This Year

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

With all precincts reporting, the DeQueen Leopards appear to be rough and ready for their home opener against the Hope Bobcats this Friday evening.

Some skeptics would point out that DeQueen is 0-2 so far with only 26 players on the entire squad, but they will never convince the Hope Bobcat coaching staff.

For the HHS staff scouted the Leopards last Saturday night, when the highly-ranked Broken Bow (Oklahoma) Savages barely mustered a 12-3 win over the tough Arkansans. And Head Coach Ronnie Higgins was visibly impressed with DeQueen, commenting that "they whipped Broken Bow all over the field."

It is true that Leopard Coach Wayne Freppon has but 26 stickers on his squad, and nine of his forces are full-time two-way starters. But the experience, size and speed are there, leaving only a losing background to dim their hopes.

Bad breaks in the season opener cost DeQueen a 13-10 loss to lowly Mena, and that could have hurt the Leopards' mental attitude permanently. However, they came back with the top effort at Broken Bow, coming within nine points of a team that has only lost three games since 1965.

The Hope-DeQueen rivalry is not as intense as it was earlier in this decade, and lately the game had become a breather for the Bobcats before playing Smackover the following Friday. This year should reinstate the competition of the series, as Coach Freppon returns eight offensive and nine defensive starters from 1968.

Actually, with Prescott and Nashville faltering at present, the Leopards may have the best chance of any in upsetting Ashdown's run for the Class 7-A title.

The starting offensive line will average about 185 pounds, which is slightly below Hope, but DeQueen has the distinction of quickness in running plays from the first buzzer to the last.

Hope's problem will be preventing a letdown after the Prescott victory, as has occurred in past years here after big wins. What the Bobcats need is another game as easy as last Friday's but they won't get it at DeQueen.

Several Hope players are suffering from muscle pulls, minor sprains and the like, but none are deemed serious enough to warrant missing any games. Tackle Jim Alford is recovering from an ankle sprain which may have damaged some ligaments, but with a light work week will be able to go nearly full speed Friday night.

Region 4-AA teams have gotten off to a fairly decent start in early games, and unbeaten teams include Arkadelphia, Camden, Magnolia, Crossett, and Smackover. It will still be a few weeks before the divisional races get well underway, but 4-AA East could decide its champion this Friday when the Magnolia Panthers collide with Camden, upset 27-7 winners over Fairview.

Also this week Arkadelphia takes on Nashville, Smackover plays Fairview, Malvern travels to Russellville, Warren hosts Dumas, Monticello visits Crossett, and Hope is DeQueen's first home opponent.

Heinsohn New Mentor of Celtics

By DAVE O'HARA

Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP) — Tommy Heinsohn, who promised to answer any call for help when he retired as a Boston Celtics star four years ago, is keeping his word—coming back as coach of the National Basketball Association champions.

Heinsohn, now a 35-year-old hefty, and fat in spots, wealthy insurance man, agreed Monday to a one-year contract to succeed Player-Coach Bill Russell, who announced his retirement in July.

"We'll see if Heinie likes it," said General Manager Red Auerbach in announcing appointment of the former Holy Cross All-American. "If he does a good job, he'll probably be here a long time."

The 6-foot-7 Heinsohn, who helped the Celtics to eight NBA titles while scoring 12,194 points in nine years of regular season play, shocked many observers when he quit at the age of 31 in 1965 to accept a lucrative insurance position.

However, he cited loyalty and left the door open for a return, as a player, "if they need me and if arrangements can be worked out."

Fortunately, the Celtics didn't need him back as a player. Auerbach won the NBA championship again as coach in 1966, then turned the bench reins over to Russell, who led Boston to two more titles in three years as player-coach.

While piling up money in private business, Heinsohn couldn't stay away from the Celtics. He worked out with the team frequently and for the last three years has served as announcer of games on television.

"Tommy has been intimately involved with the Celtics since his retirement," Auerbach said. "He has consulted with me often. He knows our personnel and he has scouted for us."

Auerbach originally planned to handle the Celtics' preseason training with Heinsohn's assistance while hoping that Russell would change his mind about retiring.

However, Auerbach apparently gave up hopes of persuading Russell, who joined the club the same year as Heinsohn in 1956, to return. Russell still has one year to go on a contract which would pay him more than $200,000 for the 1969-70 season.

Heinsohn, who averaged about 18.5 points a game during his playing career, has his work cut out for him with Russell and Sam Jones retired and Mal Graham lost because of illness.

"I consider this a challenge," Heinsohn said in taking over a club which has won 11 titles in the last 13 years. "I know the attitude of this club. These guys have the attitude to win."

YALE HAS IS BACK

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Yale's football team is playing its 97th season with 15 lettermen back from last year's unbeaten co-champions of the Ivy League. However, the Eli lost 29 lettermen.

Twins Pull Away From Oakland

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer
Time is running out and the Minnesota Twins are running away from the Oakland Athletics.

The Twins reduced their magic number for clinching the American League's West Division pennant to eight Monday night, knocking off the A's 6-3 on Dave Boswell's six-hitter.

Harmon Killebrew walloped his 43rd homer of the season and raised his runs batted in total to 131 as the Twins opened a nine game lead with just 16 games left to play.

Elsewhere in the American League Monday night, Detroit shut out New York 2-0, Cleveland clipped Boston 4-1, California blanked Chicago 4-0, Seattle trimmed Kansas City 3-2 and Washington edged Baltimore 3-2.

In the National League, Montreal blasted Chicago 8-2, San Francisco dropped Atlanta 4-1, Philadelphia swept a doubleheader from Pittsburgh 2-1 and 4-3, New York edged St. Louis 4-3, Cincinnati checked Los Angeles 4-1 and San Diego downed Houston 5-3.

Killebrew's homer capped a three-run Twin rally in the third inning and attracted a standing ovation from the crowd of 26,497 at Metropolitan stadium.

Rod Carew opened the third with an infield single and reached third when pitcher Rolfe Fingers threw wild. Then Oliva doubled him home and Killebrew followed with his homer.

Killebrew opened the sixth with a single and came around on Cesar Tovar's double and a sacrifice fly by Leo Cardenas. The Twins added two more runs in the eighth on RBI singles by Tovar and Boswell.

Rick Monday, in his second at bat since breaking his hand Aug. 10, ripped a two-run homer in the second, giving Oakland the early lead.

Denny McLain became the winningest pitcher in the majors when he won his 23rd game, pitching a two-hitter against the Yankees.

Norm Cash tripled home the only run McLain needed in the third inning and then came across on a passed ball for an insurance tally. The shutout was the ninth this season for McLain, who won 31 games last year.

Duke Sims tagged a two-run homer as Boston rallied for four runs in the ninth inning to overtake Boston.

Lee Stange was working on a three-hitter and leading 1-0 on Mike Andrews' first inning homer. But Jose Cardenal opened the Indians' ninth with a single, stole second and scored the tying run on Frank Baker's single. Sims followed with his homer and Cleveland added another run later in the inning.

Bill Voss drove in three runs with a bases-loaded triple—one of only three Chicago hits—as California trimmed Ken Taum.

Jim McGlothlin and Ken Tatum teamed for the five-hit shutout.

Gene Brabender won his 13th game—most ever for an expansion team pitcher—as Seattle edged Kansas City. Brabender limited the Royals to three hits in seven innings with Diego Segui finishing up.

Brabender also scored the eventual winning run for the Pilots when he singled in the eighth, was sacrificed to second and scored on Wayne Comer's hit.

State Loses Johnny Carr for Season

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Tailback Johnny Carr will be lost to the Arkansas State Indians for the season as a result of a broken collarbone he suffered in a practice session Saturday.

The 175-pound Carr was running at the No. 2 tailback position throughout fall drills and was expected to see considerable action.

The Indians open their season in Jonesboro Saturday night against Eastern New Mexico.

Cardinals Study Way to Stop Staubach

By SHEILA MORAN

Associated Press Sports Writer
The St. Louis Cardinals likely will face the same dilemma in the National Football League opener Sunday that confounded Baltimore last weekend—how to cope with Roger Staubach, the sensational, scrambling Dallas Cowboys rookie quarterback.

Dallas Coach Tom Landry said Monday that regular quarterback Craig Morton, sidelined with a dislocated right index finger, would be a doubtful starter against the Cards at the Cotton Bowl.

Baltimore stopped Dallas 23-7 in the preseason finale last weekend but Staubach, who isn't called "The Dodger" for nothing, kept the rugged Baltimore defense on the run.

"I never ran so much in all my life," said a weary Bubba Smith, the Colts menacing defensive end after chasing Staubach around the Cotton Bowl Sunday. "I've never seen anyone, including Fran Tarkenton, who can scramble like Staubach. The only times we caught him was when he was standing still."

Which wasn't often. At one point, the 28-year-old Navy product, who won the Heisman Trophy in 1963, ate up 23 seconds to gain 14 yards in a mastered the art of fishing the plastic worm. I might add that fish were caught on all lures such as chuggers, top water plugs with spinners and just whatever we had in our tackle boxes. When those Novillo Bass hit a top water plug the sound was like a cow falling into the water. That was when we had to use pressure to keep them out of the trees and brush. Space does not permit the many stories that were related each evening around the dinner table about the day's experiences.

Saturday night when all the tackle was put away the fellows brought their refreshment bottles, dips and snacks to the dining room where we set up a buffet table. Here we all really enjoyed fine fellowship and relaxation with our entertainment being jokes and many, many fishing tales. Bright and early Sunday morning August 17 we loaded and boarded our plane and headed for Austin. Our return load included ten styrofoam ice chest filled with fish filets. Although the trip was highly enjoyable and the memories pleasant, we were happy to see the State Capitol and Texas University Tower on our approach to Austin.

We were met at the plane by our wives and friends, and as one fellow was heard to remark "we have not seen anything this pretty since we left here."

run through half the Baltimore team.

What makes Roger run? "I saw openings and I wanted the yards," said Staubach, who gained more yardage rushing, 118, than passing, 108, because he had trouble locating his receivers and reading the defenses.

But he says he'll become a conventional, drop-back quarterback yet.

The Cowboys, meanwhile, released two rookies as NFL clubs reached their 40-man limit Monday. Released on waivers were George Nordgren, a running back from Houston, and line-backer Chuck Kyle of Purdue.

The Colts dropped Coach Bob Boyd, wide receiver Don Ailey and running back Larry Conjar. Boyd was named defensive backfield coach after nine seasons as a defensive back with the Colts. But he was kept

Starts Wednesday At Saenger

John Wayne, Glen Campbell and Kim Darby star in "True Grit" which opens Wednesday at the Saenger Theatre in Hope. Wayne stars as Rooster Cogburn the one-eyed U. S. Marshal; Campbell plays "La Brea", the Texas Ranger and Miss Darby stars as Mattie Ross, the girl whose father is killed and she sets out to avenge his death. The story is set in 1880 in the State of Arkansas, starting in Yell County, progresses into Ft. Smith and on to Indian territory.

Lions Told About Hope Schools

At yesterday's regular Lions Club meet at Town & Country Junior High School Principal Will V. Rutherford discussed "Education: Its Positive and Negative Components". Here is Mr. Rutherford's talk:

"If we think of education as the sum total of the experiences of an individual that influences his attitudes and behavior, then we may class these experiences as either POSITIVE or NEGATIVE.

"Some of the positive components are: love, truth, honesty, courage, justice, cleanliness, and respect for one's self and respect for others. Negative components are antonyms of the above, namely: hate, falsehood, dishonesty, cowardice, injustice, uncleanness and disrespect for one's self and respect for others.

"The Local School Board, with your support, is trying to carry out its responsibility in providing adequate facilities, modern instructional materials, a broad curriculum and a qualified staff to give the children of this district a formal education with a thorough academic background. We must remember, however, that forces outside of the school have an educational impact upon the youth of our community. The children in the classroom may be learning about Western Civilization Algebra, or Latin and the children in the streets and downtown alleys are also learning something each day. Their learning maybe of the negative type.

"It is incumbent upon you members of the Lion Club, and upon all parents and adults of this community to exert every possible effort to see that the total environment of our youth is as conducive as possible to the positive influences of education. I speak of all parents and all children. This includes those who live across the tracks. The white and the black. We must eradicate the negative and accentuate the positive.

"In the study of Social Institutions we learn that each institution has within itself the germ for its growth and development and also the germ for its destruction. Each community, likewise, has within itself the potentials for its growth, development, and peace and also the potentials for its discord, stagnation and disruption. I commend you for your past support of the School Board and your schools, and I implore you to continue in your loyal and positive support of your school program.

"Yerger Jr. High School has an approximate enrollment of 450 students. The student is approximately 60 per cent white and 40 per cent Negro. There are 21 teachers, five Negro and 16 white. The students are lovely and are going about their work without friction. The teachers are dedicated to their job of helping the students in their pursuit of an education."

Bans Walking Catfish From Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Game and Fish Commission voted Monday to prohibit the sale or possession of walking catfish.

Also named in the regulation adopted by the commission was the piranha, Mexican Bandit and stickleback. Penalty for violation was set at a fine of $250 to $500.

Magnolia Victorious Over Hope

By: RALPH ROUNTON Star Sports writer

Unable to break into the win column for the second game, the Hope "B" Lizards suffered a 10-0 setback at the hands of the Magnolia jayvees last night at Magnolia.

Hope Coach Willie Tate came home impressed favorably with the locals' defensive effort, but commented that the offense didn't do quite as well.

Magnolia drove 82 yards for the game's only touchdown, which came on a two-yard sneak by quarterback Pat Schultz with two minutes left in the contest. Schultz then swept into the end zone for two points, and the Panthers had an 8-0 margin.

The only other score came with 24 seconds on the clock, as Bobcat QB Tommy Frazier was tackled in his own end zone for a safety.

Good field position was maintained by the "B" Lizards through the first half, but nothing produced on the scoreboard. On defense Tate praised Hiram Reynolds, and had good words for secondary men Anthony Davis and Stan James. Magnolia kept up a fairly successful passing game throughout with Schultz at the helm, and completions of 33 and 47 yards set up the Panthers' TD.

Next week the "B" Lizards travel to Nashville for a Monday night game, still seeking a win, and last year's game saw Hope whip the Scrappers 39-0.

Broyles Real Concerned About Porks

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas football Coach Frank Broyles moaned Monday that the No. 2 ranked Razorbacks were leg weary and that their passing game was sloppy.

"Our quarterbacks' arms are sore and the receivers' legs are tired," Broyles said.

The Porkers are preparing for Saturday's opener against Oklahoma State. Broyles said it was doubtful that linebacker Cliff Powell and tailback Bill Burnett would be ready to start.

Powell reinjured a toe in a workout Saturday. Burnett has missed most of the fall drills with a pulled hamstring muscle and he said Monday that although his leg didn't hurt it felt awkward when he cut.

"I am genuinely concerned about Oklahoma State," Broyles said. "They beat us two years ago. They led us going into the fourth quarter last year and their freshman team walked our freshmen last year. We know nothing about them. But they have a wide-open offense. They force the defense to stay alert."

Captains for Saturday's game will be fullback Bruce Maxwell and center Rodney Brand on offense and halfback Terry Stewart and end Gordon McNulty on defense.

Record Attempt Is Delayed

MILWAUKEE (AP) — An attempt to break the world land speed record by The Blue Flame has been delayed by late delivery of construction materials.

Peter H. Farnsworth, president of Reaction Dynamics, Inc., the designers and builders of the vehicle, said today that the delay would be from 30 to 60 days. The scheduled date announced earlier was Sept. 7 to Sept. 13.

"However, a record attempt at the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah is definitely in the picture for this fall," he said.

Practically All Rated Are Triple A Teams

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — One participant in The Associated Press high school football poll phoned in his vote during the weekend and confidently called out Fort Smith Northside as his top choice.

Then, he began to falter. "I don't really know after Northside," he said. "There's about 15 teams that deserve to be in the top 10."

Many of his problems should be solved after Friday night when several of the ranked teams square off against each other.

Fort Smith Northside, named on top of 14 of the 16 ballots cast this week, easily retained the No. 1 spot in the poll. The Grizzlies received 158 out of a possible 160 points.

Northside plays El Dorado this week. The Wildcats were ranked the first two weeks, but were idle last week and dropped from the top 10.

Little Rock Central, which moved into second place, plays Little Rock Catholic. Little Rock Hall, which dropped a notch to third despite beating Catholic, plays Little Rock McClellan. Catholic is fifth and McClellan sixth in this week's ratings.

Catholic was fourth last week and McClellan sixth. Springdale, fifth last week, advanced a notch to fourth.

North Little Rock Southwest remains in seventh place followed by Hot Springs, Magnolia and newcomer Fort Smith Southside. Southside replaced El Dorado in the select group. Magnolia, the top team in Class AA, will be tested this week by unbeaten Camden. Sheridan and Dollarway follow Magnolia in the AA rankings.

McGehee continues to lead the Class A list, followed by Brinkley and Walnut Ridge. Junction City replaced Holly Grove in the third spot in Class B, but Mineral Springs and Earle remained one-two.

Here are the results of the poll with first place votes and team records in parentheses and total points at right:

Thinks an Electoral Reform Would Shatter the Two-Party System

By JOHN BECKLER Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP) — A Negro congressman says abolition of the Electoral College would encourage black separatist parties and other splinter groups that would shatter the two-party system.

Rep. William Clay, D-Mo., sounded his warning against shirking from the present system of direct popular elections as the House neared a key vote on electoral reform.

An alternate plan, sponsored by Texas Democrat Rep. John Dowdy, calling for awarding electoral votes on the basis of congressional districts instead of by states was rescheduled for voting today after a delay in the House Monday.

Clay, a freshman congressman from St. Louis, said the present system of electing presidents enhances the political power of Negroes in urban areas by making it possible for them to influence large blocks of electoral votes. Wiping out the electoral college, he said, would eliminate the influence of Negro voters in the North as well as the South.

Clay's position puts him at odds with most urban congressmen.

Clay declared the Electoral College is the best protection for the two-party system, which, he said, offers Negroes their best opportunity for political participation.

Without the cohesiveness of the Electoral College, he said, the national parties will be weakened and splinter groups will be encouraged to take their views to the electorate.

"I am certain that black separatist, conservative and liberal parties would evolve," he said.

"These splinter groups will choose to take root when it becomes unnecessary for them to work within the major political parties."

Clay said advocates of direct election were over-reacting to the scare created by George C. Wallace's third-party race last year. What they should really be afraid of, he said, is the possibility of divisiveness that direct elections might create.

MONEY CLIPS

by Mort Reed

In July Pope Paul IV visited the Republic of Uganda in the heart of Africa and the government of the tiny republic has recorded the historic event on its coinage.

The six-coin-all-silver, 1969 proof set consists of a 30-shilling piece and a two-shilling piece, each featuring the bust of the Pontiff and the Sanctuary of Namugongo (where 22 Negro martyrs were slain because of their religious belief). The 25-shilling coin contains a half-length likeness of Pope Paul and lists the sites of his various pilgrimages, beginning with his visit to Jerusalem in 1964.

A 20-shilling piece (illustrated above) shows the Pope superimposed over the center of the African continent and depicts his route from Rome to Kampala.

The Sanctuary of Namugongo and the crowned Crane of Uganda are the devices respectively on the 10- and 5-shilling coins. All six pieces are mirror-finished fields with frosted designs.

This set is pure silver and intended strictly as a collector/investor item of potential rarity. To insure this potential, the number of sets involved in a commemorative program of this kind is usually less for worldwide distribution than the number required to satisfy orders from a single country.

In keeping with this policy, the Bank of Uganda struck exactly 15,000 sets for the whole of the international market and I can only assume that the quantity allotted to the United States is something less than 10 percent of the total.

This Uganda set sells for $75 delivered but prices for individual coins will have to be determined through Paramount International Coin Corp., Paramount Bldg., Englewood, Ohio 45322.

The Niagara Frontier State Park Commission has grown since 1954 from seven parks with 2,990 acres to 14 parks with 4,884 acres.

Opening lead—♥ K

The student ruffed the first heart and played out his ace of spades. When both opponents followed he turned his attention to the club suit.

East won the second club with the king and promptly cashed the jack. Then he led a diamond. The student played his king but that didn't matter. West was sure of two diamond tricks and took them.

"Pretty good bid, wasn't it?" asked the student. "Our opponents were cold for four hearts, weren't they?"

"Yes, they were," replied the professor. "But you should have made your four spades." The professor was right as always. Do you see what the student should have done?

Declarer's problem was to keep East out of the lead and he had a way to do that. He should have discarded a club on the king of hearts!

If West continued with the ace of hearts, South would discard another club. If West shifted to a club, South would win the trick with dummy's ace, lead dummy's queen of hearts and once more discard a club.

After this procedure South would be able to ruff two clubs in his hand and set up the last two clubs for diamond discards leaving only one diamond loser.

This is what might be called a double loser on loser play in that South would discard two club losers on heart losers and by so doing, would keep East from gaining the lead to play a diamond through the king.

After Five Centuries Search for Northwest Passage Comes to End

NEW YORK (AP) — Nearly five centuries after sailors began the search for a Northwest Passage above Canada, the SS Manhattan has become the first commercial vessel to negotiate the icy waters.

But the historic voyage of the massive tanker, specially fitted with icebreaking equipment, hasn't proved that the treacherous northern route is feasible for shipping.

The 1,005-foot, 115,000-deadweight-ton ship smashed through heavy ice north of the Arctic Circle Sunday to hit open water at the mouth of Prince of Wales Strait.

"There's nothing in her way now," said a spokesman for Humble Oil Co., the ship's owner. Her final destination, Point Barrow, Alaska, is a week away.

As far back as 1498, when John Cabot explored the eastern end of the route, Europeans sought the Northwest Passage as a shortcut to the riches and spices of the Far East. The great trading companies sponsored several attempts to find the route.

Now the treasure isn't spices, but oil, the vast supply on Alaska's northern slope. A Northwest Passage open to huge tankers would cut thousands of miles and dollars from the trip around South America.

But Wednesday, as the Manhattan jostled with ice flows near Banks Island, a Humble

Oil official said no decision on the route's commercial possibilities would be made until the early 1970's.

Stanley B. Hass, Humble's project manager, told newsmen aboard that mountains of data gathered on the voyage would be fed to computers later this month. The number of times the ship became stuck in ice and the ice pressure it encountered would be two key factors, Hass said.

The ship sailed Aug. 24, from Chester, Pa., with 54 crewmen and 72 scientists aboard.

Haynsworth to Present His Own Case

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Judge Clement F. Haynsworth, under fire for alleged conflicts of interest, was called to present his own case today as Senate hearings opened into his appointment to the Supreme Court.

The Senate Judiciary Committee scheduled the 56-year-old South Carolinian as the lead-off witness for the hearings, which also were planned to include opposition testimony from civil rights and labor organizations.

Most committee members have said they are keeping an open mind on the appointment until they hear all the evidence. But even opponents say that, barring new developments, Haynsworth's nomination probably will be approved.

President Nixon nominated Haynsworth, now chief judge of the 4th U.S. Court of Appeals last month to fill the vacancy created by Abe Fortas' resignation in mid-May.

Opponents of Haynsworth's nomination not only have accused him of pro-segregationist and antilabor rulings but also have raised a conflict-of-interest charge because of his participation in a 1963 decision.

The court majority, including Haynsworth, upheld the right of the Darlington Mfg. Co., a subsidiary of Deering Milliken, Inc., to shut down its textile plant after the Textile Workers Union won a representation election.

At the time of the decision—later reversed by the Supreme Court—Haynsworth had a major stock interest in Carolina Vending-Matic, a company providing vending machines in three of Deering Milliken's plants.

Haynsworth has called his participation in the case "entirely proper" and, in preparation for today's committee hearing, submitted a statement detailing his part in founding and financing the vending machine company.

Robert F. Kennedy, as U.S. attorney general also said Haynsworth had acted properly.

UN Assembly Opens 24th Session

By MAX HARRELSON
Associated Press Writer
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly opens its 24th session today, facing a long list of formidable problems including the Middle East, disarmament and the crisis in Northern Ireland.

The consensus is that the results of the three-month public debate will not be spectacular, but that the session will provide an opportunity for important private talks.

The opening session this afternoon was reserved for the formalities of electing Angèle Brooks, 41-year-old Liberian lawyer-diplomat, president of the 126-nation assembly. She was unopposed.

The major policy speeches began Thursday when President Nixon files to New York to address the assembly. Secretary-General U Thant hailed his decision to appear as a gesture of support for the world organization.

Consultations were expected today or Wednesday between U.S. and Soviet diplomats to prepare for meetings between Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko and Secretary of State William P. Rogers. The two foreign ministers will discuss the Middle East, disarmament and other issues.

Thant is pressing hard for Big Four talks on the Middle East while the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union are attending the assembly session. They will get together Saturday night at a dinner which the secretary-general is giving for them.

What the assembly itself does on the Middle East will depend largely on the result of private talks. If the Arabs and the Israelis feel that the negotiations are making progress, they may follow last year's pattern and defer public debate.

The disarmament debate is also dependent partly upon what happens in private U.S.-Soviet talks and what progress is made in the next few weeks in the Geneva disarmament conference.

Diplomatic sources say the United States and Soviet Union are near agreement on a treaty to ban nuclear weapons from the sea floor. But it is not certain whether agreement will be reached in time to report it to the assembly at this session.

It seems fairly certain that no treaty will be ready on chemical and bacteriological warfare, another very live issue which will figure in the assembly arms debate.

The prospects for debate on the Irish situation are uncertain. The Irish Republic has asked to have the question placed on the agenda, but Britain will oppose any U.N. debate on the ground that this is an internal matter, thus outside the jurisdiction of the assembly.

The issue will be taken up by the 25-member steering committee when it meets Wednesday to consider the agenda. The committee could recommend that the assembly refuse to take up the issue. It previously was shelved by the Security Council.

RITUAL MURDERS
JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — An authority on African customs, Dr. Peter Becker, said ritual murder by Africans cannot be stamped out but "must burn itself out like a veld (grass) fire. In education and religion lie the most powerful antidotes."

During a period of six months in 1968, six whites and Africans were murdered in South Africa so that parts of their bodies could be used for "muti" (witchcraft medicine).

The union has won a federal court order to the National Mediation Board to release negotiators in the airline dispute on grounds that mediation had failed, the first step in freeing the union to strike.

The Justice Department, acting for the Mediation Board, appealed the order and won a postponement pending a hearing Oct. 15.

The eight months in which the Mediation Board has frozen the dispute, preventing a strike, is one of the longest in recent years under the National Railway Labor Act which governs airline labor disputes.

"It has developed into kind of a feud between National Airlines and the IAM and we are in the middle," said a spokesman for the three-member board.

The union also noted National Airlines won a route from Miami to London even though a Civil Aeronautics Board examiner had recommended that Pan American get it.

Union Accuses Nixon of Being Unfair

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A labor union accused the Nixon Administration today of giving favorable treatment in a labor dispute to an airline headed by a major financial contributor to President Nixon's election campaign.

"A check of the reports to Congress of presidential campaign contributions shows that L. B. Maytag, Jr., president of National Airlines, was one of President Nixon's largest contributors," said the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists.

"As National Airline's $100,000-a-year chief, Maytag is calling the shots in the airline's eight-month lockout of more than 1,000 IAM members," the union said in its newspaper, "The Machinist."

"Maytag's airline and the Justice Department under Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, acting for the National Mediation Board, are now trying to stall the IAM in court," it said.

"Maytag and Atty. Gen. Mitchell are no strangers. Mitchell, President Nixon's former law partner, was the President's election campaign manager. Maytag was an important fund raiser, as well as a big contributor," the union said.

The article said reports to the clerk of the House showed Maytag had contributed $24,000 in separate $3,000 gifts to eight different Nixon campaign committees.

Maytag's office in Miami quoted him as saying he would have no comment until he had seen the Machinists' article.

Integration New Majority
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A majority of Negro school children will attend classes in "racially unified" schools in this school year, state Education Commissioner A. W. Ford reported Monday.

Ford said that more than 50 per cent would attend such schools compared to 20 per cent in the last school year.

Arkansas has "done well, comparatively speaking" in achieving racial integration in public schools, he said. Ford said the national average for Negro students attending school with whites was 33 1-3 per cent to 40 per cent.

He said the state had 10 to 12 school districts that do not intend to comply with federal desegregation requirements and would do without federal funds "until a federal court suit is filed."

FOOTPRINTS ON THE MOON

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS' COMPLETE 'INSIDE' STORY OF OUR 'ONE SMALL STEP FOR A MAN'...

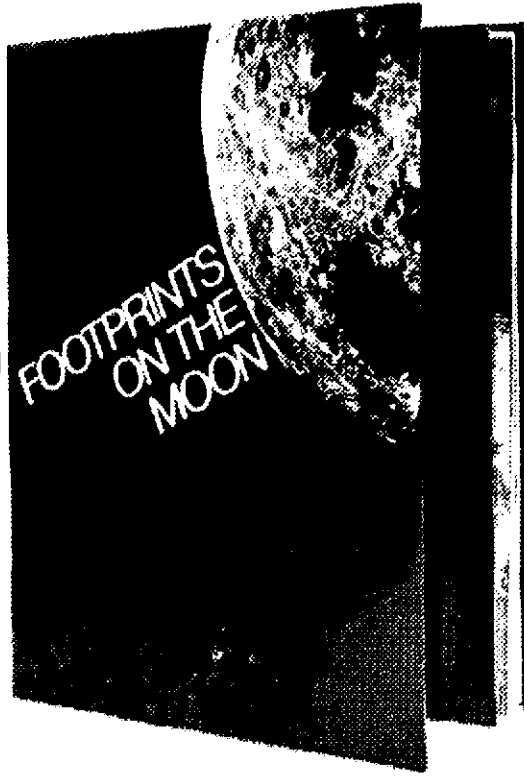

Immediately following the heroic feat by the Apollo 11 astronauts, this newspaper and hundreds of others across the country announced the publication of The Associated Press' dramatic documentary book, "Footprints on the Moon."

In just a few weeks later, as the books came off the press, almost 200,000 orders had been received. People wanted this lasting memento of the complete story of America's successful efforts in the space race to the moon. Written by AP space specialist John Barbour, the book is a well-researched, easy-reading exposition of the U.S. space efforts from the first sub-orbital flight to the epic achievements of the Apollo voyage.

"Footprints on the Moon" is a best-seller because it is a quality production. 142 full-color photos illustrate the 70,000 word story. The 9" x 12" book is hard-backed with a handsome dust jacket. Its price of $5 would be considerably more if ordered anywhere but through this newspaper.

It is a quality book—at a bargain price. Order your copy for your home library today.

Mr. Cook will be recalled as the Old Timer who started the ruckus in this column a few weeks ago over the Pittsburgh Pirates' exhibition game with the University of Arkansas' baseball team in which a Razorback pitcher struck out the mighty Honus Wagner. Roy Anderson happened to remember the exploits of Charlie Tompkins of Prescott, and Mr. Tompkins kept the ball rolling with a newspaper transcript of events half a century ago.

We appreciate Mr. Cook's tribute to The Star's 1969 Football Edition. It's an annual event worked up by Donal Parker, our advertising manager, covering university and high school. As long as five years ago it drew a letter from Bob Cheyne, U. of A. publicity director at that time, declaring it to be the best Razorback promotion in the state.

The 1969 edition was produced by Mr. Parker with Ralph Routon, Hope High School senior who covers local sports for The Star, writing much of the news copy.

The best of copy and layouts, of course, is no better than the skill of the men and women in the shop who turn it into print. And their skill is limited to just what the equipment they work with will allow.

Which is the long way of getting around to explaining that if our 1969 Football Edition was the best ever a substantial measure of credit is due The Star's $170,000 offset printing plant, put into production for the first time Dec. 29, 1965. It is particularly effective in reproducing photographs — which is the prime reason we junked the entire old plant at the end of 1965.

C.M. (Pod) Rogers, Jr., Star circulation manager, and Carter Russell returned home Monday from their Hope watermelon promotion trip to San Diego and Los Angeles still talking about the rigors of the Western desert in Summer.

They went west on the northern route through Flagstaff, and returned on the southern route by way of Phoenix. Their truck carrying a ton of watermelons had no air-conditioning.

I suggested that many tourists hitting the desert in Summer travel by night to escape the heat. But Rogers and Russell said they couldn't do that. Their heavily-loaded truck averaged only 7 miles per gallon, and they had to gas up every 100 miles. But no gas is available at night, the stations being closed — so they had to meet daytime's 120-degree heat head-on.

This Star had received from Mrs. Martha Stephenson of Hope a picture sent her by a cousin in California showing a Los Angeles Times four-column shot of a Hope melon being decorated by a California girl — additional copies of the 135-pounder display being brought back by Rogers and Russell.

The Hope men put up their truck while in Los Angeles and rented a Volkswagen to run around town in. They had the 135-pounder in the Volkswagen. No sooner had the Times hit the street with its early 6 p.m. edition than some vandal broke out a window in the Volkswagen while the boys were in a restaurant and stole the melon.

The quick succession of events — picture in the Times followed instantly by the theft of the melon — made the Los Angeles police edgy when Rogers and Wallace hollered "We wuz robbed."

That being Hollywood country, the police naturally suspected a tall publicity frameup.

Finds Memories Are the Best Things of All to Collect

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — What do you collect? Stamps? Coins? Old silver? Memories?

Memories are the best of all things to collect. They have several advantages over other possessions that people prize and save.

They never decrease in interest, they can be shared with other people without diminishing their value, and you don't have to put them away in a costly safe-deposit box, as you do diamonds, to protect them from thieves.

Many folks might envy your precious store of memories; none would be so heartless as to wish to steal them from you.

And your album of memories is pretty extensive if you can look back and remember when —

You could write your congressman a penny post card telling him why you didn't think he was worth 2 cents.

About the only people who wore wigs were Shakespearean actors.

You saw more white horses on the street than you did men with beards.

Before the advent of television, critics complained that the quality of programs on the radio had brought American cultural history to a new low.

The most common household tools for bridging the generation gap were the hairbrush and the old-fashioned razor strap, applied locally as required. You could kiss a pretty girl at a church social for a dollar or less —and not feel short-changed.

One of the big thrills of boyhood was getting a job clerking in a grocery store on Saturdays and learning how to perch a pencil on your ear as if you had done it all your life.

Mother always kept enough money in the cookie jar to tide the family over any financial crisis the last two days before payday.

A barbershop quartet could harmonize the strains of "Old Black Joe" without worrying over the possibility they'd incite a race riot.

It was taken for granted that any lad with gumption would be seized with wanderlust and try to run away from home before his 16th birthday.

The slips that girls wore beneath their dresses were at least three times as long as the miniskirts they wear today.

In a large family mother would review at the supper table the sins during the day of each of the kids, and father, after staring sternly in turn at

Hope GI Is Visited by Famous Pastor

LONG BINH, VIETNAM (AH-TNC) — Army Private First Class Danny G. Sisson, a patient at the 24th Evacuation Hospital near Long Binh, Vietnam, received a pleasant surprise Aug. 6 when he walked Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, noted churchman and author of several best-selling books.

Pfc. Sisson, 19, son of Mrs. Vera L. Sisson, 133 Lucard St., Taft, Calif., is regularly assigned to Company A, U.S. Army Depot, near Long Binh, as a mechanic.

Dr. Peale, who is pastor of the Marble Collegiate Church in New York City, had been personally asked by President Richard M. Nixon to visit hospital patients and men in the field in Vietnam. He stopped first at a base camp of the 1st Infantry Division and then boarded a helicopter for the hospital.

The "positive thinking" minister was highly impressed by the excellent medical care received by the patients and the moral of all the soldiers. "If we ever have any greater soldiers in the history of the U.S. than we have right now," he said, "I'm not going to believe it."

Pfc. Sisson's father, Walter E. Sisson, lives on Route 1, Hope, Ark.

Boswell Urges No Platform Prematurely

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Ted Boswell of Bryant, an unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor last year, criticized Monday a plan to adopt a proposed party platform in advance of the 1970 primary.

Boswell said that if he were a candidate next year he would advise party officials that he would not run on a platform selected by a committee.

"To do so, I would become what I have always criticized and that is a consensus candidate," Boswell said.

The Democratic State Committee approved Saturday formation of a Platform Committee to hold public hearings throughout the state and draft a preliminary platform. The party platform has been drafted by the party convention between the primary and the general election.

Top Livestock at Third Dist. Show

Visitors to the Third District Livestock Show, to be held September 22nd through the 27th, will have an opportunity to see some of the top livestock produced in the third district area as well as an interesting variety of commercial and educational exhibits.

The exhibits will be displayed in the new portion of the coliseum which affords an attractive setting for them, an added attraction to the show this year will be the art show.

This event will be housed in the skating rink building and will have entries from a wide area. This display of art has proven to be a most important addition to the show and each year the exhibits get larger and better.

The coliseum will be the setting for some form of entertainment each evening during the week. On Monday evening, the annual youth talent will be held with contestants from all over the district. Tuesday evening the annual fair queen contest with contestants from most of the counties from southwest Arkansas.

Winners at the county and district levels will compete at the state show sometime during the See TOP LIVESTOCK (on page two)

Enemy Hits Village, 24 Persons Die

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Two hundred North Vietnamese troops raided a village in the populous coastal lowlands south of Da Nang, killed 24 persons, wounded six others and destroyed 170 houses, South Vietnamese spokesmen reported today.

Sharp fighting was reported in various parts of South Vietnam as GIs and officers speculated which units would be included in new U.S. troop withdrawals. Allied forces killed 212 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese in a dozen clashes from the Mekong Delta to the demilitarized zone, military spokesmen said.

Allied casualties were five Americans and three South Vietnamese killed, and 49 Americans and two South Vietnamese wounded.

U.S. Headquarters said another American was killed and 53 others wounded in 29 rocket and mortar attacks between 8 a.m. Monday and 8 a.m. today.

The North Vietnamese attacked the village of Mai Linh, in the northern part of the country 12 miles south west of Quang Ngai, shortly before midnight Monday with rockets, mortars, grenades and rifle fire.

The village of 288 persons was defended by militiamen, and three of them were killed. All of the other victims were civilians. Enemy losses were not known.

Nixon to Pull Out 35,000 More GIs by December 15

By KENNETH J. FREED
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon announced today that at least 35,000 more U.S. troops will be withdrawn from Vietnam by Dec. 15.

That would bring to 60,000 the total of Americans in uniform to leave the war-torn country since the phased withdrawal program began in July.

A White House source said about half of the 35,000 would be combat troops—a lower ratio than in the original withdrawal of 25,000 men. He also said the total might turn out to be 36,000 or 37,000 once the action has been completed.

There was no word from Nixon on possible future withdrawals but the source said a number of contingency plans have been drawn up.

Nixon once expressed hope that U.S. withdrawals might exceed 100,000 by the end of 1969 and the source said he had no reason to believe Nixon had abandoned that hope. The latest announcement made the 100,000 level seem most unlikely.

The President coupled his new troop withdrawal announcement with a review of administration efforts to promote a peaceful settlement.

Calling for meaningful negotiations now, Nixon said: "I realize that it is difficult to communicate across the gulf of five years of war. But the time has come to end this war."

Vice President Nguyen Ky said Monday in Saigon he understood Nixon would announce a second-stage withdrawal of 40,500 men.

U.S. officials explained Ky based his figure on a scheduled cut in the authorized troop ceiling in Vietnam whereas Nixon's announcement was couched in terms of actual numbers of men to be pulled out—a smaller figure because few units in Vietnam have their full authorized complement.

As for Ky's statement that he looked for a total U.S. withdrawal of 150,000 to 200,000 by the end of 1970, the White House source who talked to newsmen —declining to be quoted by name—said Ky did not get those figures from U.S. officials.

Constitution Week Observed by Hope DAR

Observance of Constitution Week, Sept. 17-23 is being advocated by the Arkansas State Society, DAR and John Cain Chapter of Hope.

The Constitution, oldest federal constitution in existence, was framed by a convention of delegates from 12 of the 13 original states in Philadelphia in May 1787. Rhode Island failed to send a delegate.

George Washington presided at the session which lasted until Sept. 17, 1787. The draft originally a preamble and seven articles, was submitted to all 13 states and was to become effective when ratified by nine states.

The Constitution went into effect on the first Wednesday in March 1789, having been ratified by New Hampshire, the ninth state to approve on June 21, 1788.

The states ratified the Constitution in the following order: Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Georgia, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Maryland, South Carolina, New Hampshire, Virginia, New York, North Carolina and Rhode Island.

Constitution Week has been designated by an Act of Congress and is observed annually to recall the true significance of the signing of the Constitution of Sept. 17, 1789.

John Cain Chapter DAR requests all local business firms, and other organizations to display the Flag of the United States during Constitution Week to promote patriotism.

Arab Grenade in a Market Kills Woman

TEL AVIV (AP) — An Arab threw a hand grenade into a busy market in Gaza City today, killing a 50-year-old Israeli woman and wounding another Israeli woman, a 15-year-old Israeli boy and 13 Arabs, sources in the occupied Gaza Strip reported.

Israeli troops surrounded the market and picked up a score of Arabs for questioning.

Several of the wounded were reported in serious condition. On the other side of Israel, Arab guerrillas in Jordan opened fire on an Israeli border patrol in the Beisan Valley and wounded a sergeant, the Israeli Army reported.

The patrol returned the fire, and an exchange of mortar fire followed.

Farther north, Arab snipers opened fire on patrols near Gushor and Ashdot Ya'akov, the Israelis reported. They said the fire was returned and there were no Israeli casualties.

Israel deported two Arabs from the occupied West Bank to Jordan today for alleged contacts with Arab terrorists. They were a former education supervisor and a chemist, and both were also accused of inciting other Arabs to commit sabotage.
